theatre is an interpretive art based upon a director's emotional reaction to reading a play and imagining a production of that play before the audience experiences the production the director must go through a process part art and part craft to create it this book is intended to introduce undergraduate students with a solid theatre background to that process stevens includes chapters covering theatre and art the interpretation of the script composition and movement working with actors and matters of style each chapter contains exercises in order for students to consolidate what they have learned the complete text of John Millington Synge's Riders to the Sea is included as an example and study text and Stevens relates many examples from his own rich directing background twenty production photos two sample floor plans and numerous diagrams round out the text the study of directing is a life long project and in this book Stevens provides a basis for that study the internationally acclaimed biography of one of history's monumental figures, Gandhi. A life: the first biography of this important figure in over twenty years. Gandhi: a life rescues the man from the myth, revealing the transformation of an ordinary, timid young man into a leader whose stand against a mighty empire brought millions together. Until another Gandhi scholar comes along who digs deeper and can write more movingly. Gandhi scholarship will be well served by Chadha's effort. The Washington Post Book World: it is well balanced, even handed, and like its subject, inspiring. Kirkus Reviews: an engaging work worthy of a wide audience. Library Journal: a sober, sensible, and notably fair account of this most quicksilver of personalities, far from uncritical, but on the whole, he is approving, even reverential. Usually, he convinces one that this is justified. Daily Telegraph, London: the first major biography to appear for twenty years with a depth and authority which others have lacked. The Independent, London.
